Missa Brevis: Christina of Markyate

Christina of Markyate was a twelfth-century recluse who became prioress of Markyate, near St Albans in Hertfordshire. Determined to devote her life to God and to remain a virgin, Christina repulsed the sexual advances of the bishop of Durham. In revenge he arranged her betrothal to a young nobleman but Christina steadfastly defied her parents and refused to consummate the marriage. Sustained by visions, she found refuge with the hermit Roger, and lived concealed at Markyate for four years, enduring terrible physical and emotional torment until it was safe to live openly again.

In this setting of the Missa Brevis, the text of each movement is linked to a period in Christina's life.

The Kyrie reflects on Christina's early spiritual awakening at St. Alban's Abbey which she visited as a teenager. Inspired by the lives of the monks she saw there, she made a private vow of chastity.

After a terrible series of persecutions by her family, Christina eventually fled her home and went into hiding at Roger's hermitage. There she endured intense physical discomfort, was plagued by physical ailments and had vivid and often very frightening visions. The music of the Gloria depicts this period.

The music of the Sanctus reflects Christina's determination and resolve (echoing that of earlier in her life; the Kyrie) and the Benedictus the hard times that befell her family which lead to them eventually begging her forgiveness. At this resolution she was able to come out of hiding, to get her marriage formally annulled and to determine her next path (Osanna).

The visions that came to Christina; ecstatic, consolatory, and prophetic are the subject of the Agnus Dei. Her ecstatic visions were characterized by experiencing a strong feeling of passion or by the mere presence of God, who was often imageless. Her consolatory visions were dreams of promises of divine help and her prophetic visions were a way of her seeing into the future.
